

This employee handbook defines who we are and how we work together. We will do everything possible to create a fair and productive workplace, but we need your help. We've created this handbook to guide you.

This handbook isn't a contract or a guarantee of employment. It's a collection of our expectations, commitments and responsibilities. Please read this employee handbook carefully and consult it whenever you need to.

Getting to know our company

[Provide a brief history of your company here. If possible, use illustrations and charts to make this information memorable. Present your company's culture and vision. Avoid jargon and overused phrases (e.g. "competitive," "fast-paced environment," "core values" and "innovative.") Also, it'd be a good idea to include quotes and pictures of your company's founders, CEO or other executives to make this introduction more personable.]

Employment basics

In this section, we explain our employee contract types and define our basic employment policies.

Employment contract types

Full-time employees work at least [30 hours] per week or [130 hours] per month on average.

Part-time employees are those who work fewer than [30 hours] per week.

Full-time and part-time employees can have either temporary or indefinite duration contracts. Full-time employees under an indefinite duration contract are entitled to our company's full benefits package.

[Insert this if employees are in the U.S: We remind you that, in the U.S., employment is "at-will." This means that you or our company may terminate our employment relationship at any time and for any non-discriminatory reason(s).]

Equal opportunity employment

[Company's name] is an equal opportunity employer. We don't tolerate discrimination against protected characteristics (gender, age, sexual orientation, race, nationality, ethnicity, religion, disability, veteran status.) We want all employees (including executives and HR) to treat others with respect and professionalism. In practice, this means that we:

- [Hire and promote people based on skills, experience or potential and try to reduce bias in every process (e.g. through structured interviews.)]
- [Make accommodations to help people with disabilities move about safely on our premises and use our products, services and equipment.]
- [Use inclusive, diversity-sensitive language in all official documents, signs and job ads.]
- [Conduct diversity and communication training.]

Apart from those actions, we commit to penalizing every discriminatory, offensive or inappropriate behavior. To do this properly, we ask you to report any discriminatory action against yourself or your colleagues to HR. Our company will not retaliate against you if you file a complaint or discrimination lawsuit. Any employee who retaliates or discriminates will face disciplinary action.

Recruitment and selection process

Our hiring steps might vary across roles, but we always aim for a process that is fair and effective in hiring great people. If you are hiring for an open role, you will likely go through these steps:

- i. Identify the need for a new job opening.
- ii. Decide whether to hire externally or internally.
- iii. Review job descriptions and write a job ad.
- iv. Get approval for your job ad.
- v. Select appropriate sources (external or internal) to post your job opening.
- vi. Decide on hiring stages and possible timeframes.
- vii. Review resumes in our company database/ATS.
- viii. Source passive candidates.
- ix. Shortlist applicants.
